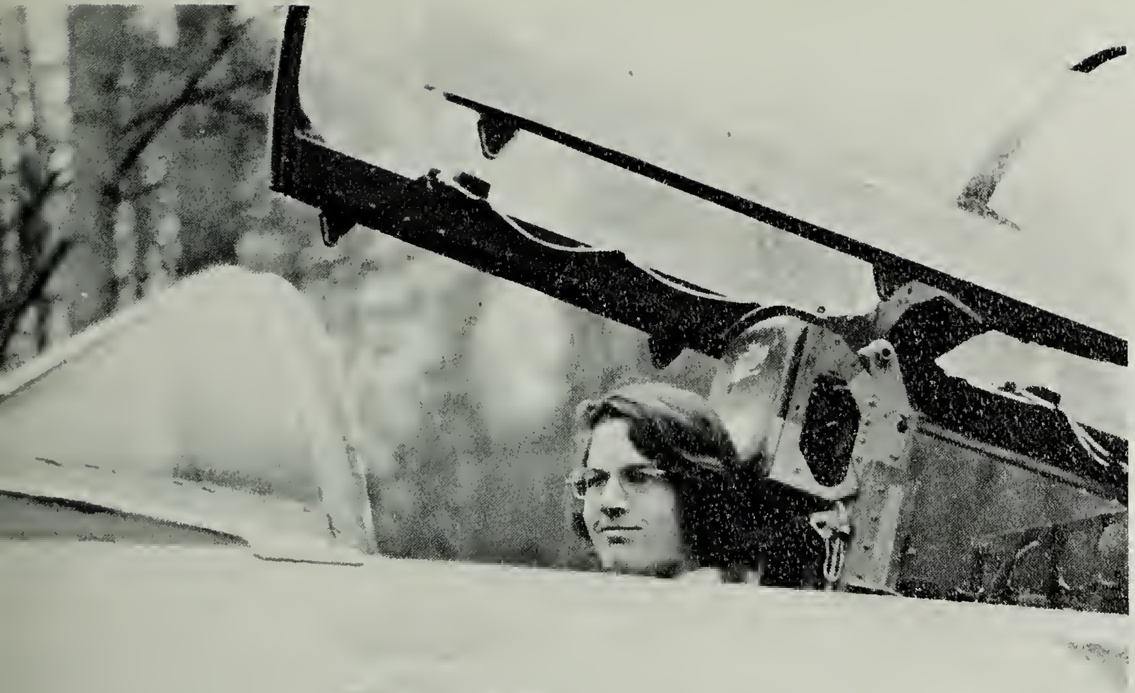
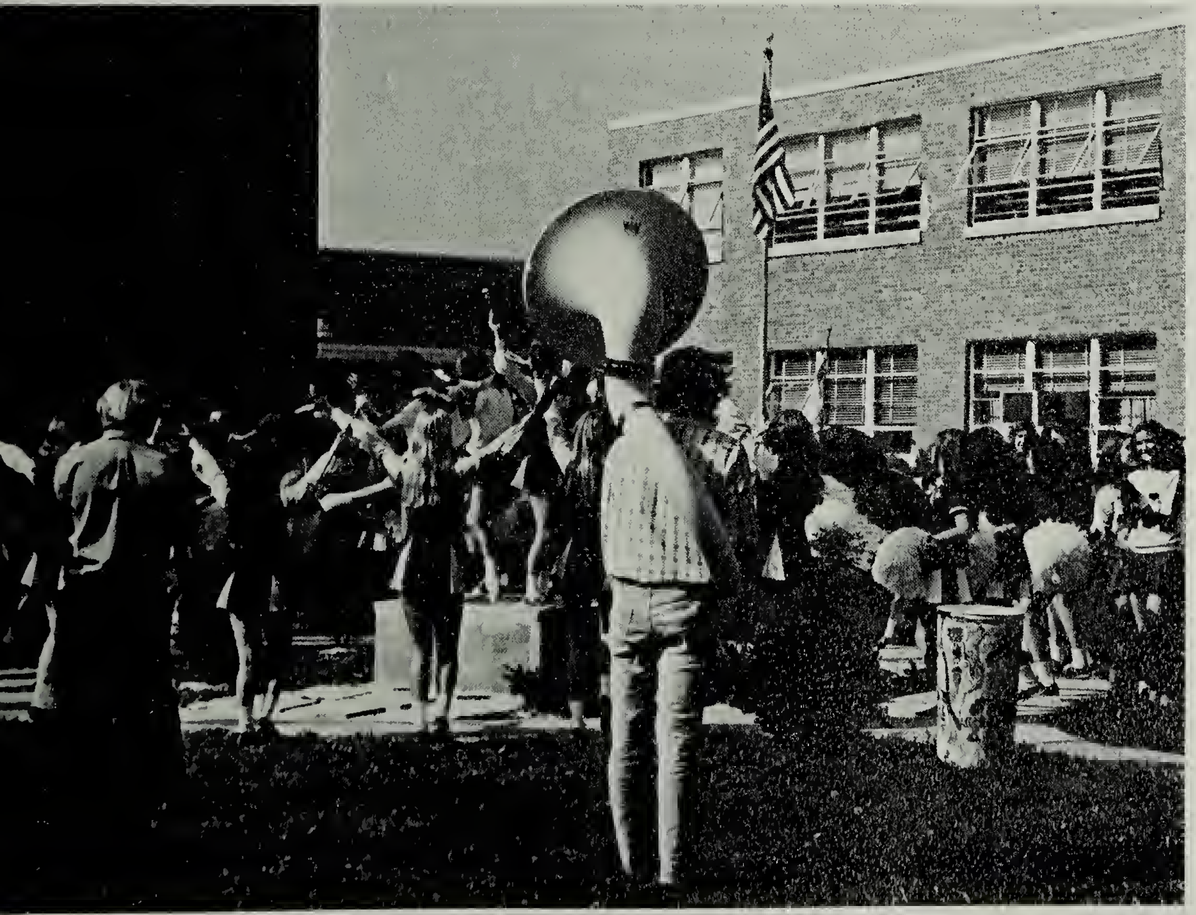
WAPAC-SMC
1-Point Peace
Plan: U.S. Out
of S.E. Asia!



For six hours a day, 3000 students inhabit this large brick structure known as Woodson. Each student has his own particular interests; however, everyone has similar characteristics. Each student becomes involved in one way or another with some element of the school. For some, meeting people is Woodson's main purpose; others prefer being alone and just relaxing. Still others do nothing but move from one facet of school life to the next as fast as the minutes fly. Despite their diversified interests and activities, however, each person helps to make up the core of this center of learning called Woodson.



In the middle of December, the United States lost its 33rd president — Harry Truman. Less than a month later, on January 20, 1973, President Richard M. Nixon was sworn in for his second term in office. During his inaugural address he once again stated that peace in Southeast Asia was imminent. Two days later, on January 22, former President Lyndon Johnson died and the flag remained at half-mast for the two presidents. On the eve of former President Johnson's death, the former president received a call from the White House informing him that President Nixon definitely would sign a peace treaty. The day after President Johnson's death the United States signed a formal peace treaty with Hanoi.

The school year of 1972-73 was, indeed, an eventful one. Along with the demonstrations for peace in Vietnam and the release of our P.O.W.'s, there were demonstrations by the Indians in Washington, D.C. demanding their rights as U.S. citizens. In March, a building collapsed at Bailey's Cross Roads. This prompted a federal investigation of safety regulations in construction areas. And then, in April, the Watergate investigation —

It was a very eventful year.

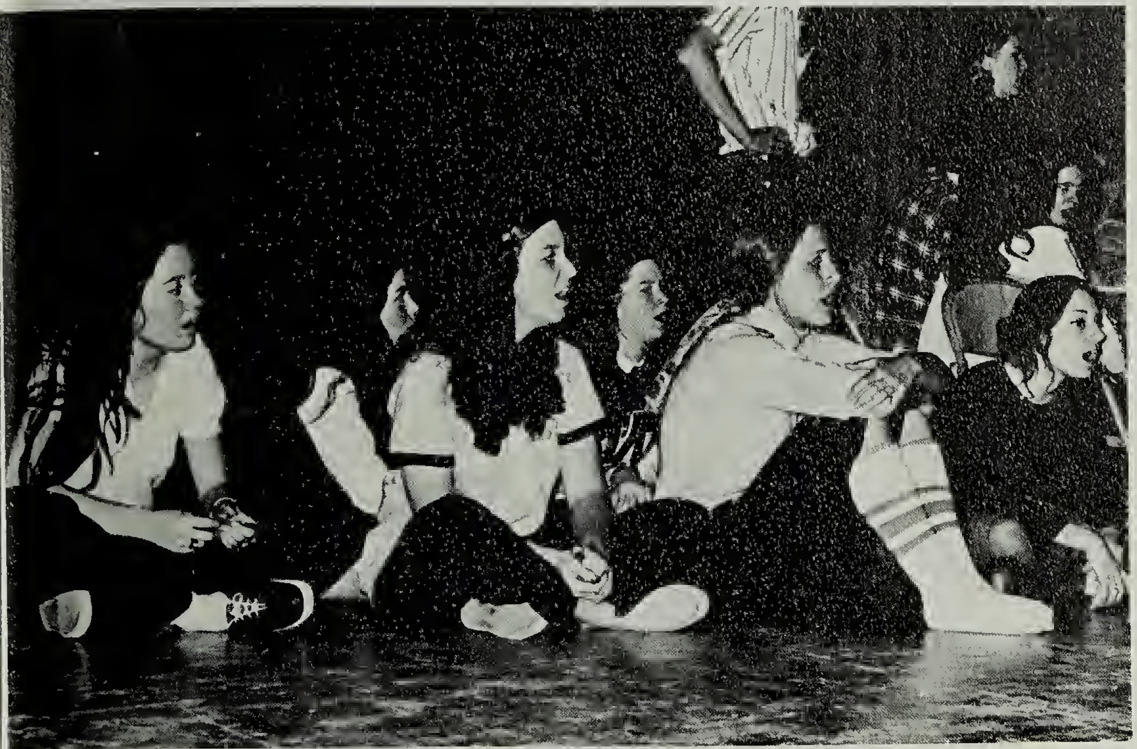
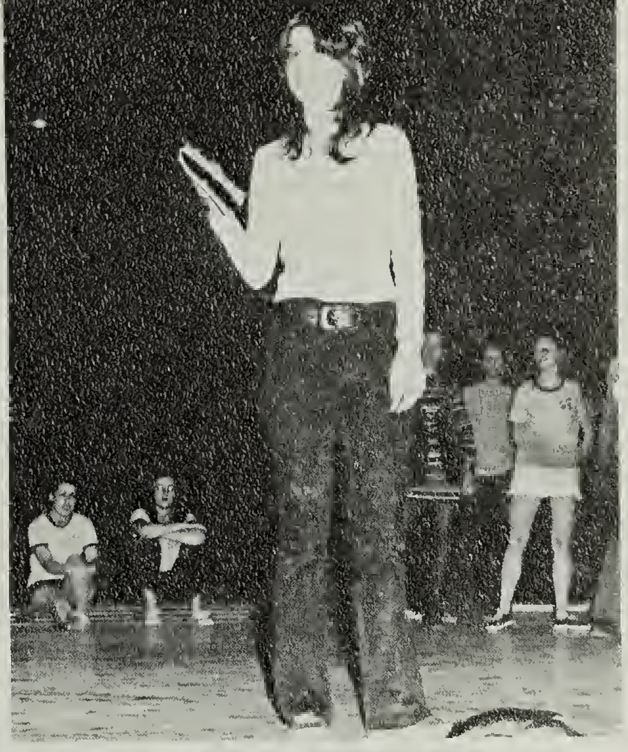
Spirit Week . . . The presence of witches, devils, black cats; streamers of crepe paper and balloons decorating the halls; strange little boxes running around school being destroyed; Martian cheerleaders; and finally the sympathetic faces of Annadale mourners. Sound crazy? It was!!

"Funny Girl"

Mrs. Bedinger did it again. She directed a smash hit with the help of student director Barbara Herickes. Starring in "Funny Girl" were Cathy Boush as Fanny Brice, and Jon Hildebrand as Nick Arnstein. The dynamic choreography of Soopi Campbell, Sandy Henderson, and T.J. Kilman, along with the outstanding costumes were factors of the play's success.





Extravaganza

EXTRAVAGANZA!
Sing Out Sweet Land-
Halloween ghosts and Raggedy Ann dolls, a Swiss chalet and a mopping crew a la Carol Burnett.
All a part of Extravaganza '73- truly a medley of showmanship and talent.

"In my 23rd stage of my new price freeze plan . . ."

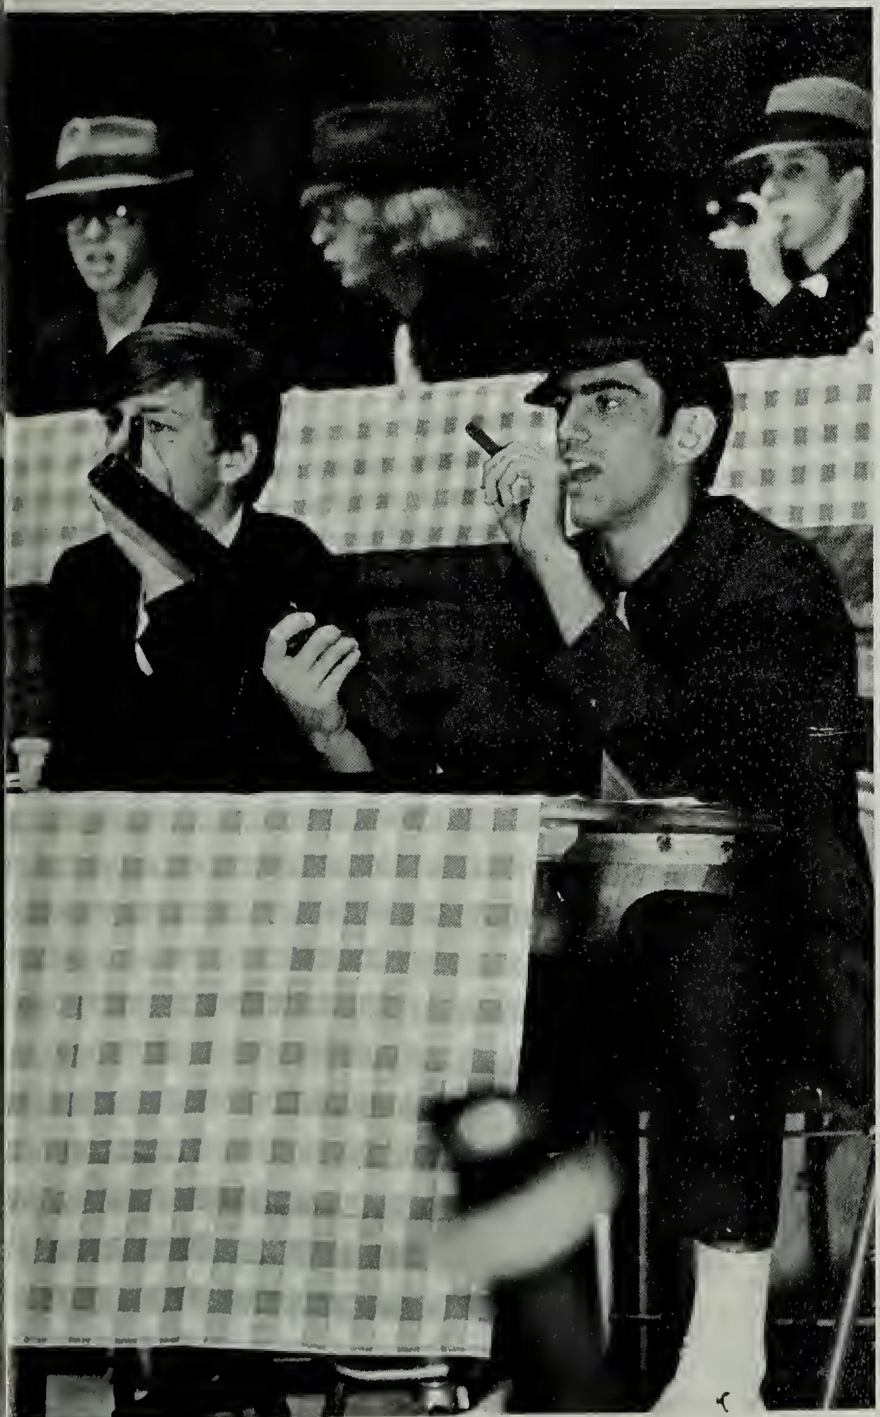
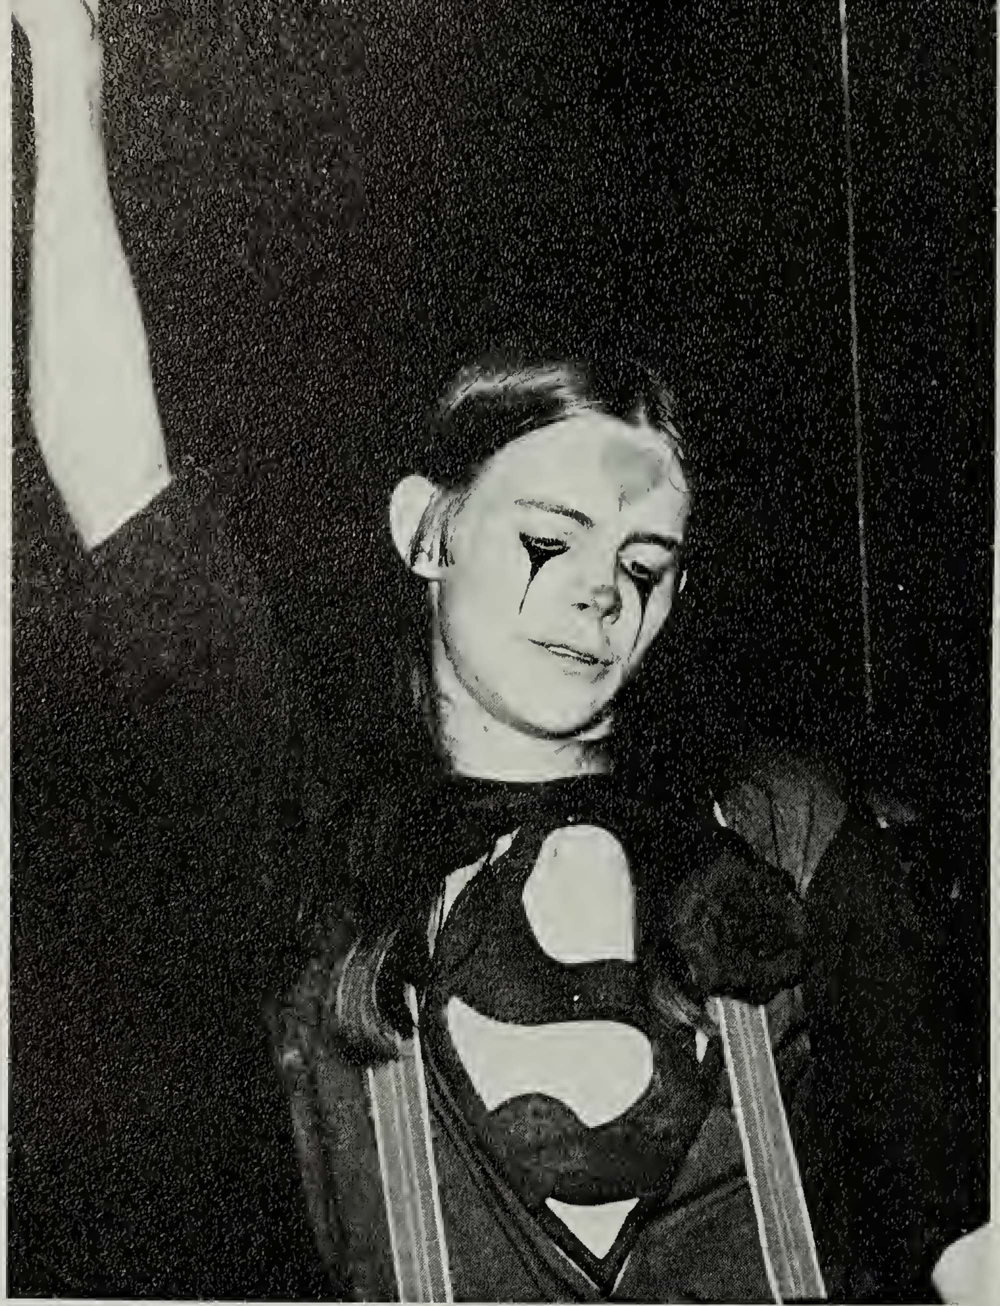
"Someday my prince will come . . . but it won't be you, Craig."



"Hey, Mr. Phipps, I'll make you an offer you can't refuse."

"Maybe it was an E flat."



Godspell

The "Left Wing Players" presented many excellent plays this year, one of which was "Godspell." Tom Cox — under the direction of Greg Kitchens — made the role come allive. The other performers were Jauncey Sweet, Cathy Boush, Ellen Pitz, Kevin Kampschoror, Rick Nickell, Betsy Brafford, Lisa deFilipes, Sarah Brown, and Beth Hetherington.

The Night Thoreau Spent In Jail

"The Night Thoreau Spent in Jail" reflects the attitudes of many people in today's modern society and shows the true meaning of individualism. Once again, the talented actors and actresses of the Drama Club put on a superb performance.

Mardi Gras Comes To Woodson

This year's Mardi Gras, though confined to the cafeteria, was up to par. The Spanish classes entertained with music, French classes with costumes, and all classes contributed food from different countries.

"Good morning," said the little prince.

"Good morning," said the railway switchman.

"What do you do here?" the little prince asked.

"I sort out travelers, in bundles of a thousand," said the switchman. "I send off the trains that carry them: now to the right, now to the left."

And a brilliantly lighted express train shook the switchman's cabin as it rushed by with a roar like thunder.

"They are in a great hurry," said the little prince. "What are they looking for?"

"Not even the locomotive engineer knows that," said the switchman.

And a second brilliantly lighted express thundered by, in the opposite direction.

"Are they coming back already?" demanded the little prince.

"These are not the same ones," said the switchman. "It is an exchange."

"Were they not satisfied where they were?" asked the little prince.

"No one is ever satisfied where he is," said the switchman.

And they heard the roaring thunder of a third brilliantly lighted express.

"Are they pursuing the first travelers?" demanded the little prince.

"They are pursuing the first travelers?" demanded the little prince.

"They are pursuing nothing at all," said the switchman. "They are asleep in there, or if they are not asleep, they are yawning. Only the children are flattening their noses against the windowpanes."

"Only the children know what they are looking for," said the little prince. "They waste their time over a rag doll and it becomes very important to them; and if anybody takes it away from them, they cry . . ."

"They are lucky," the switchman said.

From The Little Prince, by Antoine de Saint Exupery, translated by Katherine Woods, Harbrace Paperbound Library, Harcourt, Brace, & World, Inc., New York, N.Y., copyright 1943, reprinted with permission.

The float is a product of great class dedication, the spirit of '73, and unlimited inspiration stemming from the "Casey Keg."

Winning the float contest is symbolic of the capability of Woodson's 73's to conquer the problems facing them as they move on toward tomorrow.

The Senior Spirit carried us through the '72 football season, through disquieting losses and startling victories. It was the last year of the great "Woodson Way" for the class of '73.

We will all miss Woodson, some more than others. We will look back and recall the crowded halls, stuffy locker rooms, crowded classrooms, apathetic administrators, short vacations, freaks, jocks, and rah-rahs. The memories may be bitter sweet, but they will remain with us through all the further trials and tribulations of life.

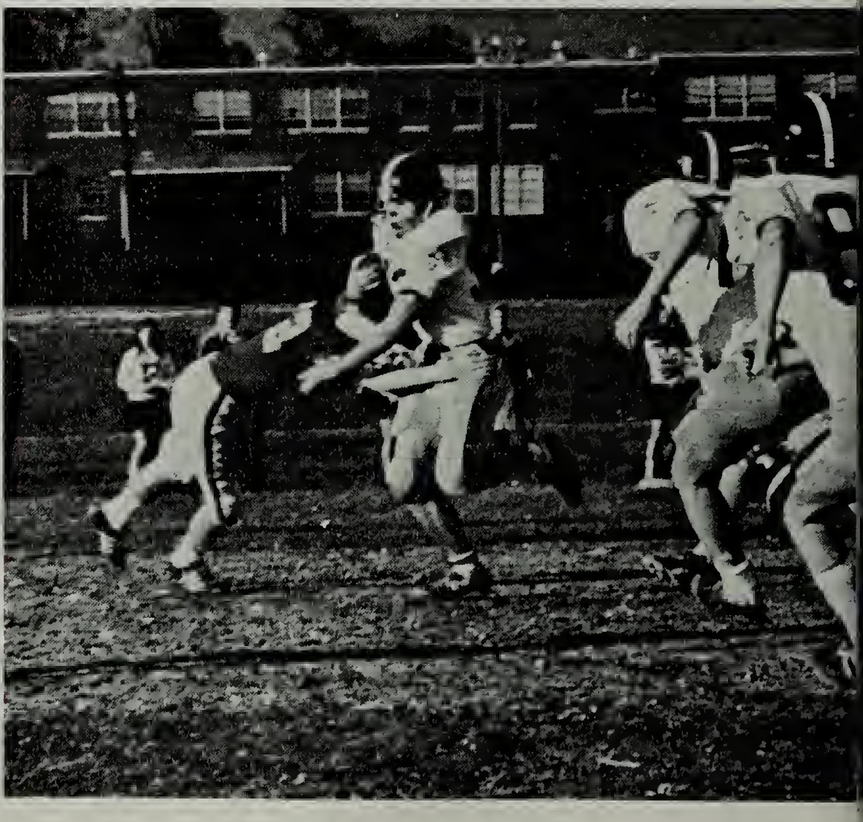
FRESHMAN YEAR . . . Cafeteria 'C', the 'third' floor, elevator passes . . . a year of frustration . . . and of innocence.

The Spirit of '73 in days of yore.

Sadie gets her man year, after year, after year, after year.

There was a moment when we discovered school wasn't all work.



As Freshmen, we were blessed with our very own jocks when football became the 'in' sport.

Principal William P. Ladson instilled in us the spirit and pride of the "Woodson Way."

Mr. Ladson — a principal that stayed with the class of '73 for three years. He gave us leadership and help when we needed it, encouragement when we failed and praise when we won. The man of diversity left in our junior year to become principal of McLean High School.

It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness, it was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity, it was the season of light, it was the season of darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair. We had everything before us . . .

I've walked down many paths alone,
Some in love and some in fear.
I've had my joys and my defeats
And sorrows in forgotten years.
Last night I watched the sun go down
In crimson streams behind the trees.
The evening mist swirled 'round my feet'
I was content, my mind at ease.

"Come on Woodson, we want some action!"
"Come on Woodson get that ball!"

These two now familiar cheers as well as numerous other cheers could be heard on Wednesday and Thursday nights at the frosh football and basketball games as well as through Woodson's hallowed halls every day after school. Unbelieveably, all that energy and spirit and plain old NOISE was being made by Woodson's ten lively freshman cheerleaders. These pretty girls have practiced long and hard this year to learn the cheers and to support the frosh teams. Keep up the good work, girls, and next year's J.V. teams can't lose!!

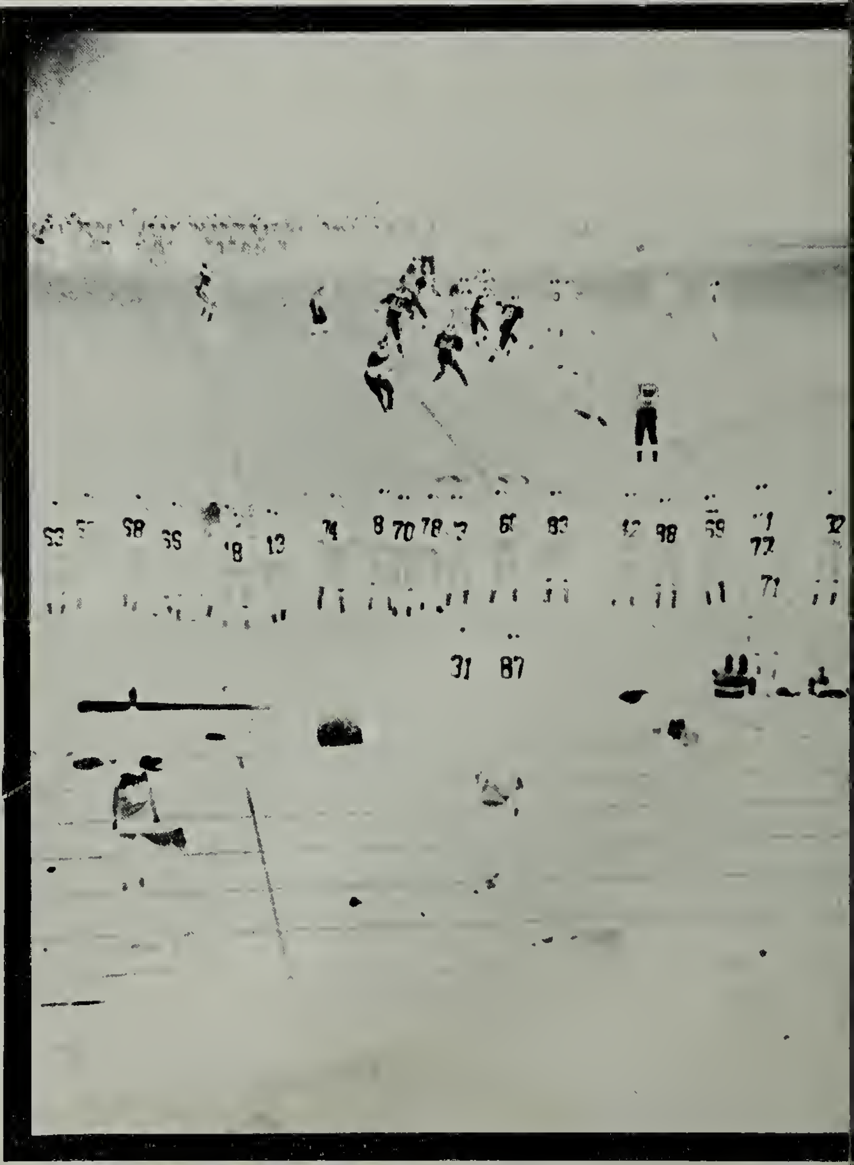
Hours of pain, glory, hell, and preparation for the common goal of victory. Defeat intermingles with victory but nevertheless, onward march the 56 members of the team, until tomorrow is today. The eagerly awaited conflict arrives, and once again the field becomes a proving ground, each player testing his efforts against those of countless others.



Varsity Football

The dedication of the unit, together with the enthusiastic support from the fans ignite the driving forces, the motivation, the desire . . . Is it worth it? The years of weight lifting, the running, the hot August sun, the cold, rainy November afternoons, the weeks of summer, and Saturdays spent working. All for what? Honor, glory, fun, popularity, acceptance? Whatever the reason, they stick it out with determination and courage, demanding a sense of respectability.

Each year the Northern District has exceptional Junior Varsity football teams. This year was no different. It was a total team effort that accomplished an undefeated season and the top spot in the district. According to offensive coach, Mr. Blaylock, the turning point of the season was defeating Robinson. Outstanding offensive players were Gary Mays and Hal Moore.

The J.V. Football defense under the first year leadership of Coach Pennington was brilliant throughout the season. They allowed a mere eight points for the season while coasting to five shut-outs. In five games the defensive line allowed only 100 yards rushing and the secondary intercepted seven passes. The outstanding defensive players were Kevin Murphy, Richard Vance, Steve Crandall, and Scott Segraves.

Freshmen Football

The freshman football squad spent this season improving skills and gaining leadership. Now that the strengths and weaknesses of the team have been pinpointed, the summer can be spent on improving the strong points, and on minimizing the weaknesses. Next year, the J.V. team should, and probably will emerge victorious! Right, guys? Right!

Cross Country

The combined strength of the Varsity and the J.V. Cross Country teams produced one of the leading powers in the Metropolitan Area this year. The highlights of the season included the first place finish of the J.V. team over 32 other teams at the Georgetown University Invitational Meet, and the eighth place finish of Tom Papst in the State Meet.

Junior Varsity Hockey

This year the hard working J.V. Girl's Hockey Team under the first year leadership of their coach, Miss Poarch, displayed fine team effort. The offense did not provide many goals but the defense proved strong throughout the season. The girls, although displaying a poor seasonal record, will provide next year's varsity team with a solid base.

Junior Varsity Basketball

After a successful season with several players having outstanding individual efforts in various games, Woodson basketball is prepared for a bigger and better varsity basketball season in '74. This year Mr. Usiskin has produced another fine team. Next year they should provide the varsity team with fresh talent for the next two years.

Varsity Girls Basketball

Do you find it hard to believe that these smiling girls are aggressive players? That's how their proud coach, Miss Legard, sees them when they appear on court. Aggressive playing and excellent defense have enabled these girls to end the basketball season with quite a record to their credit. Keep up the good work, girls. We hope to see you (you sophomores and juniors, that is) back next year!

Junior Varsity Girls Basketball

When asked her opinion of the junior varsity girl's basketball team, Coach Kickliter replied," Because of their ability and will to win, I'm convinced they'll have a good season." Her faith was well-founded and thanks to many hours of practice on shooting and teamwork, this season was indeed a good one for the team. Keep up the good work girls, and we'll see you on the varsity girl's basketball team next year!

Soccer

Until Mr. Yiasemides came to Woodson, we did not have a soccer team. Under his leadership, soccer first developed into an intramural sport and then into a Varsity and Junior Varsity sport.

The enjoyment his teams get from this sport, so newly introduced at Woodson, can therefore be attributed to their coach Mr. "Yias".

Bob Phipps, Principal

the man of many hats

We come to high school for two reasons; to gain a basic education and for other experiences unique to such an institution. The key motivator of any high school is the principal. Woodson is fortunate to have such a man as Mr. Phipps in this very important position. He is the man behind many worthwhile and fruitful projects aimed toward giving our school the best possible atmosphere for learning.

Woodson people have long been recoginized as leaders in education, sports and other extracurricular activities. Teachers are responsible for the education of students, but Mr. Phipps is responsible for the teachers, their attitudes and the general school environment. A principal can not be just a plaque on a door, but must be a "man of many hats."

Administration

To those unfamiliar with Woodson, the word "Administration" has an ominous sound. In reality, the W.T.W. administrative staff is composed of two administrations working together to leave faculty and students alike with the shared remembrances of successful enriching moments.

The API's (Miss Morris, Mr. Buskirk, Mr. Lina, and Mr. Cunningham) are each responsible to a specific department of the school. These Administrators work with the teachers, advising them on curriculum and club activities.

The Student Administrators (Mr. Billak, Miss Whitehead, and Mr. Knupp) are not only responsible for student discipline, but also for the burdens of instituting school repairs, issuing keys to teachers and lockers to students, and, last but not least, serving as clinic every day after twelve to Woodson's student body.

Mathematics

Mathematics is a lot more than just numbers and formulas. It's used when architects design buildings, engineers build space rockets, policeman file reports about the speeds of vehicles involved in accidents — it's a shopowner wondering how much flour he can sell, and a teen wondering how many gallons of gas he can afford to buy. Mathematics is time, money, volume, people — Math, an important part of today.

The Special Services of W.T. Woodson are rarely recognized — they should be. Without them many of the services we take for granted would not exist — such as having a nurse around when one gets sick or having clean halls or having hot lunches. It is time that they are recognized.

Art

The Art Department is one of the busiest departments in Woodson. Here, students are free to experiment with acrylic paints and oils. They are also given an opportunity to try their hand at creating a useable piece of artwork, such as a macrame belt or a hooked rug. The Art Department is a place where one can express oneself in many different ways.

Guidance

To many freshman, a Guidance Counselor is a faceless person known to them only by a name. He seems to serve no useful purpose for them until the second day of school when the frosh are miraculously able to find the Guidance Office. Here they are seen joining the ranks of Woodson students who desire to switch class periods or otherwise rearrange their schedules. From that day until the day of graduation, a Guidance Counselor is one of the student's best friends. He's always there to listen and to give the needed information and advice to a student to enable him to make a wise decision. From the administering of PSAT tests in the Junior year to the final acceptance notice from college in April of the Senior year, no student can help but remember the many times his Counselor had been there when he was needed most. Guidance Counselors — people who care.

Senior Directory Staff: Vicki Wood

It is now the next to the last deadline and this copy has to be in by today. As I reminisce back to my first days on the Cavalier staff, the first thing I remember is our editor coming in and acting like a female version of Napoleon. We were given copy sheets that were pink, white, and yellow — 6 pt., 8 pt., and 10 pt. type, and I couldn't figure out which was which and why it mattered if I typed on the elite or pica side of the page. Our layout sheets looked like they belonged in analytical geometry instead of yearbook. By the time I was given my photo envelopes I was ready to hang it all up, but my section editor said I'd eventually learn, and she was right!

My first impression of the yearbook room was what in the heck were the screaming yellow zonkers doing hanging from the ceiling? As the year's deadlines passed, the walls grew more cluttered with graffiti. When this deadline is met the need for more room to take out our frustrations will be over — that is until the next deadline rolls around.

Cavalcade

By looking at the diligent, hard-working staff, one can see the CAVALCADE in the making. The paper is informative, enjoyable, opinionated, and successful because of its staff. The student body reads the CAVALCADE, not to be entertained during Homeroom on the day of distribution, but find out the activities in and out of Woodson.

Page Staff

Publishing a literary magazine twice a year may not seem like much to the ordinary reader; however, to the people that put the magazine together it means meeting deadlines, writing poems and stories, and a lot of hard work during the late hours of the night. One might ask why do these people go through all this work? What are they trying to accomplish? Perhaps what best describes the answer to these questions is a saying by Lee Johnson:

"Simple Reflections of Life
Through Pen and Brush"

Student Government

The Student Union is one of the major organizations in the school. It provided the student body with several soc-hops and concerts. A project "Pitch In" was established as an attempt to keep our environment clean. It is the Student Union's spirit that helps to unify the school.

The WTW Tri-Hi-Y throughout the year does many things; perhaps the most outstanding thing they do for the student body of Woodson is to sell suckers around Valentines Day. These suckers help the student to alleviate the boredom of his most dreadful class, and gives the student something useful to do with his hands.

All this writer can say is: keep up the good work and PLEASE KEEP SELLING THOSE SUCKERS!!!

German Club

Oktoberfest, an Easter trip to Munich, and lots of good times in between aptly describe the activities in which the German Club became involved this year. As in all language clubs, the members were able to learn of the culture of the nations wherein German is spoken and to have fun at the same time. One question, German Club members; how well immersed were you in German culture at the Oktoberfest? (English translation is, how many bottles of beer were drunk?) Well, I guess we'll never know.

Chess Club and Ping Pong Club

Chess has often been considered a game of wits which only rich old gentlemen were able to play. Chess is indeed a game wherein one must match one's intelligence against that of his opponent, but as can be seen by observing the chess club in action, its popularity is not limited to rich old gentlemen. It is a challenging game to Chess Club members — but a well-liked one!

"Remember, you must hit the ball before it bounces twice on your side, never let it hit more than once before it goes over the net when you return it, and serving goes about the same way as it does in volleyball. Understand?" "Right, hit the ball before it bounces." "Well, let's play. I'm sure you will learn soon." What is being talked about? Easy — it's ping-pong, a game so easy a child could play, with just enough of challenge added to it that nations often challenge the ping-pong players of other nations to a tournament. Ping-pong, a game for everyone.

The Rising Sun Bible Club is an informal meeting of high school students. They meet daily in the auditorium lobby to pray, sing, talk, and read the Bible.

Math Team

Every week, members of the math team can be seen walking absent-mindedly down the hall muttering to themselves strange sounding words as sine, cosine, secant, cosecant, derivative hypotenuse, integrate, and integrand, as they prepare themselves for their next math meet. Their hard work has paid off, however, and thanks to these natural math geniuses, Woodson's math team has proved itself to be a formidable opponent in any meet.

A.F.S.

The American Field Service is often looked upon as a club to join if one happens to like attending a lot of parties. In a sense, this is true. The American Field Service is one of the most fun-loving clubs here at Woodson, but throughout the year they also engage in such activities as providing a stop-over for other foreign exchange students during the summer, of fund-raising activities to help pay the travel expenses of Woodson's own foreign exchange student of the year to come, and also simply learning about other places and other individual people. In short, A.F.S. is a club to join if you enjoy getting to know other places and other people as well as parties! Bottom left, two members discuss life in Europe, compared to life in the U.S. Bottom right are Mr. Glazer, and Mrs. Ford, the clubs sponsors.

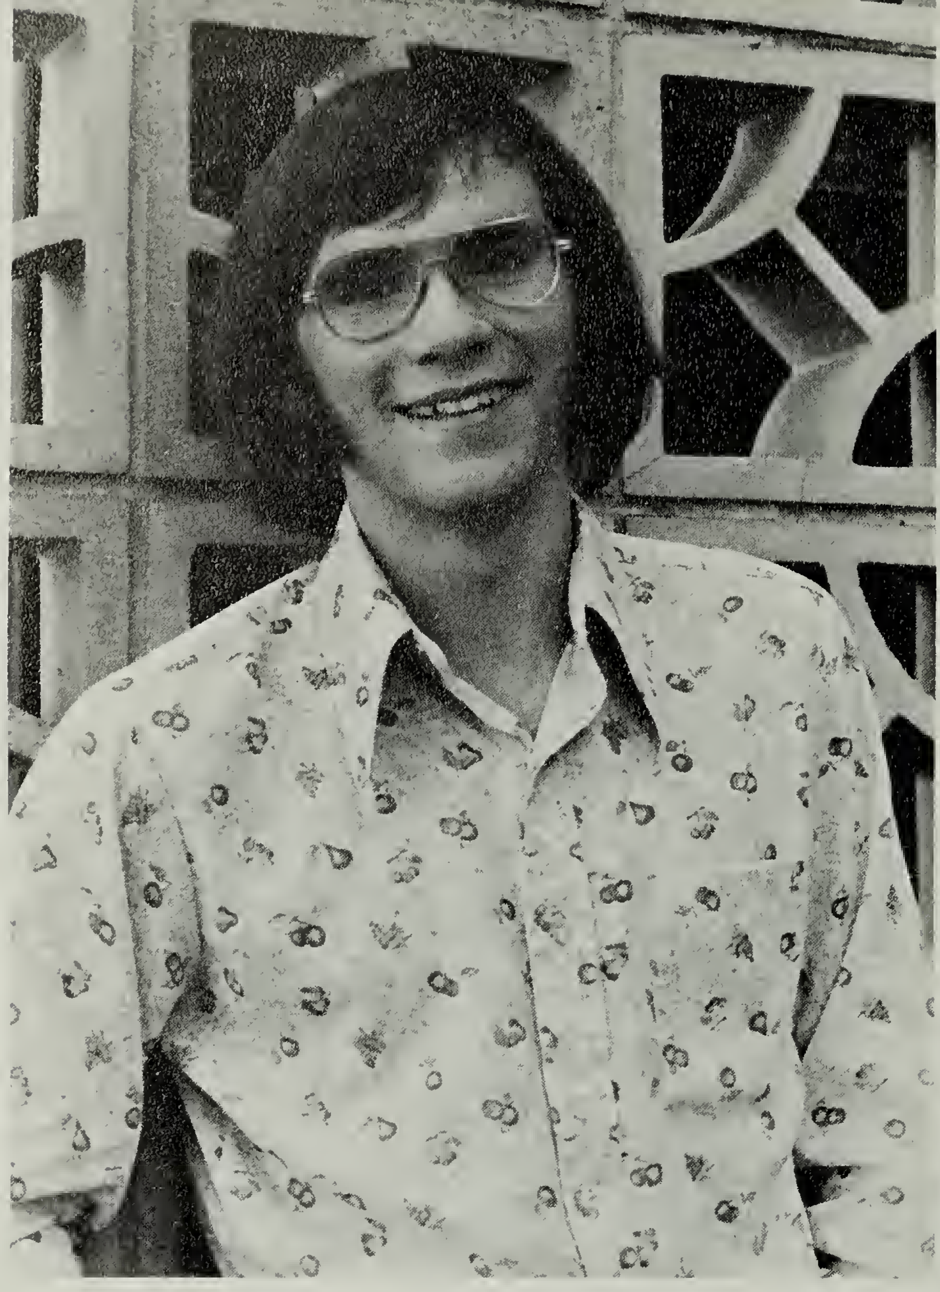
Underclass . . .

Sharing the joys and sorrows from day to day . . .

Crying and laughing with friends or strangers . . .

Then movin' on . . .



Worrying about colleges and next year;
Ready for the fun, but afraid of the decisions;
Grateful there's still one year to decide;
Movin' on . . .

EYETTES

To Everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:
A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant,
and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn,
and a time to dance;
A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep
and a time to cast away;
a time to rend, and a time to sow; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war and a time of peace.

Ecclesiastes 3: 1-8

In Memory of Joe Mulia

Two years gone, and two more coming;
Leaving your fantasies behind,
but having goals for the future.

Between two worlds-
that of high school and jr. high
Having the characteristics of each
And not quite sure which way to go
Growing up
And movin' on . . .

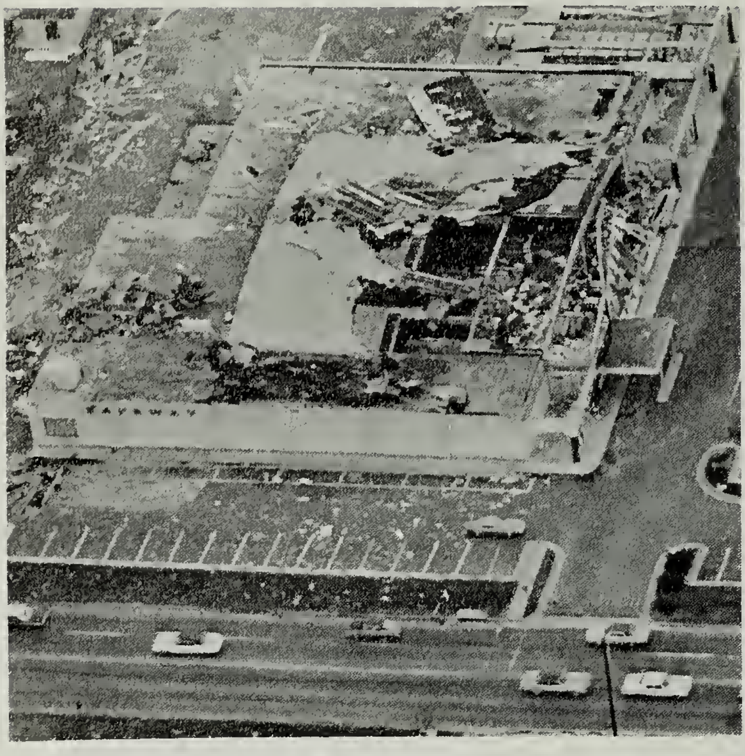
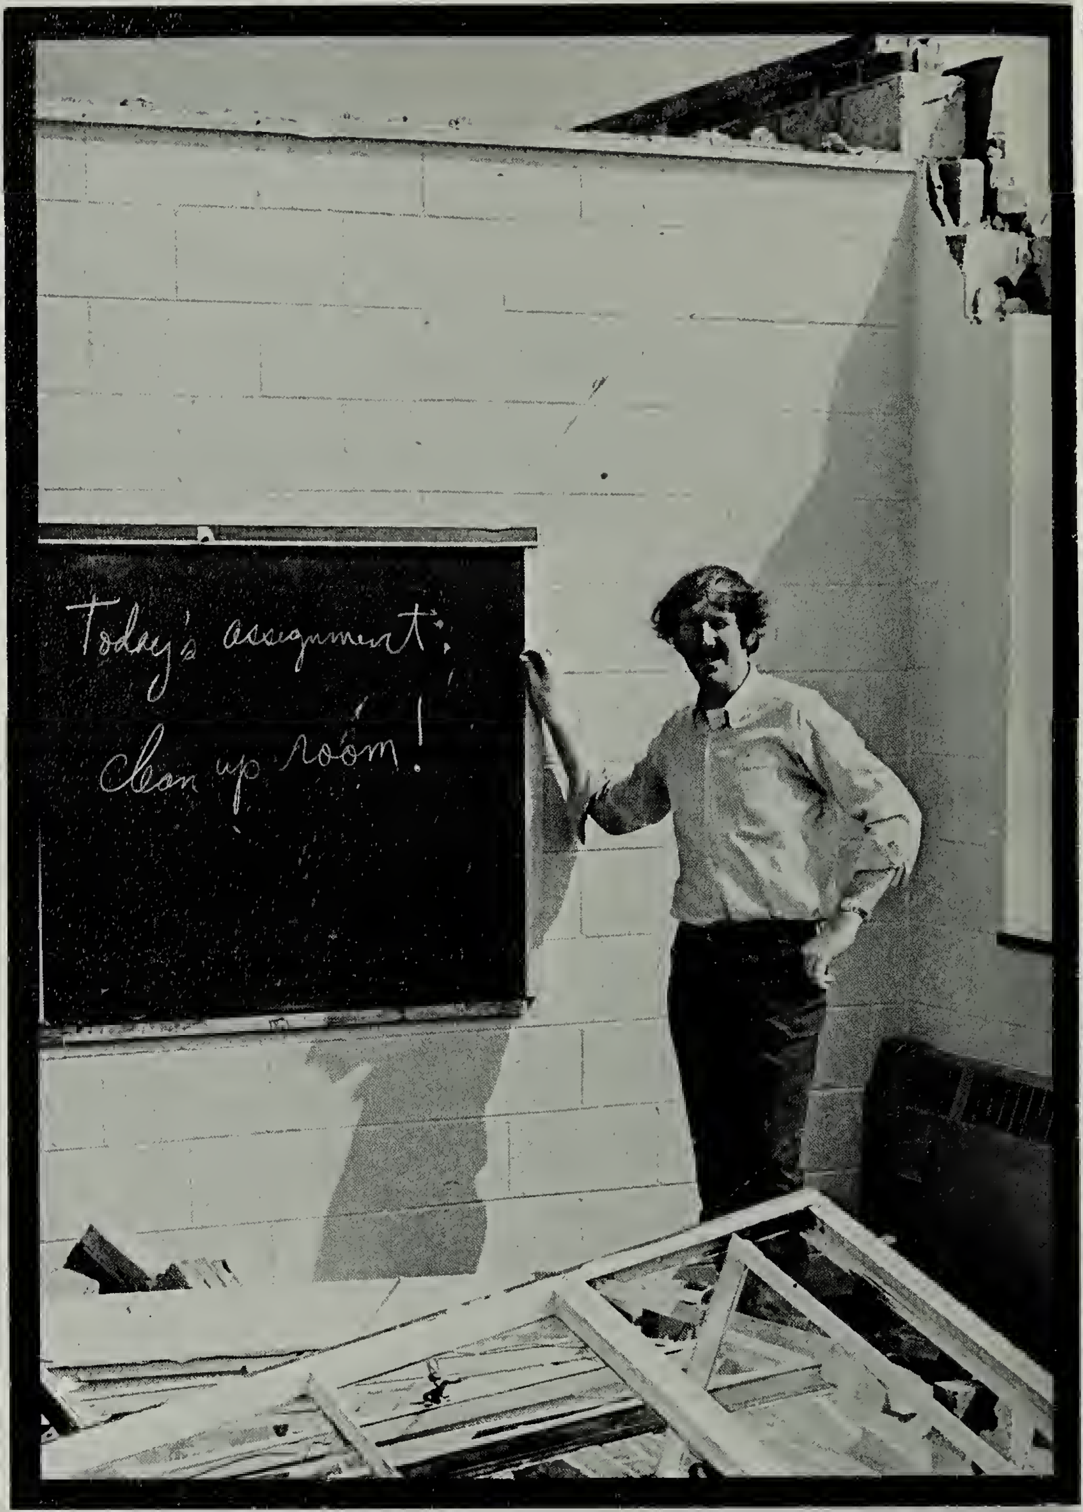
Tornado Damage

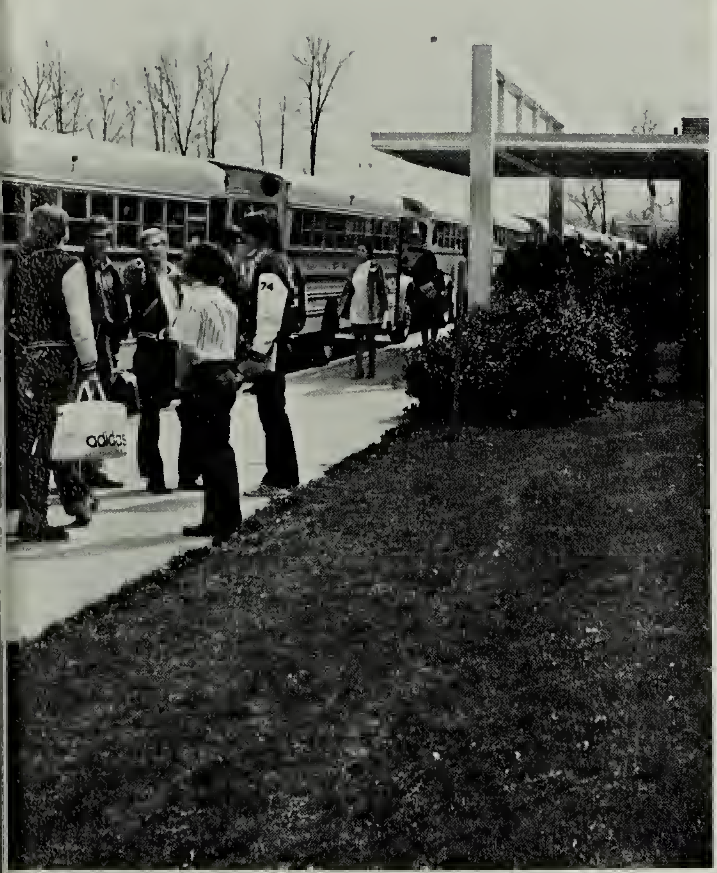


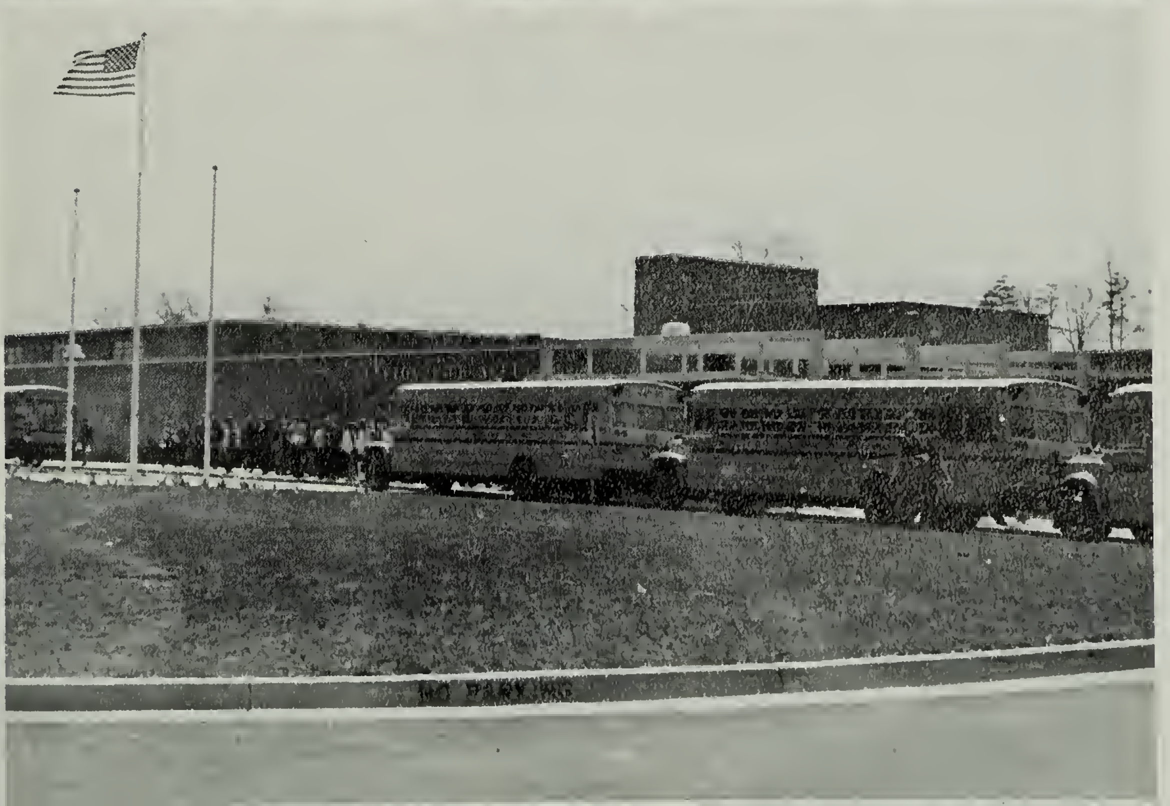


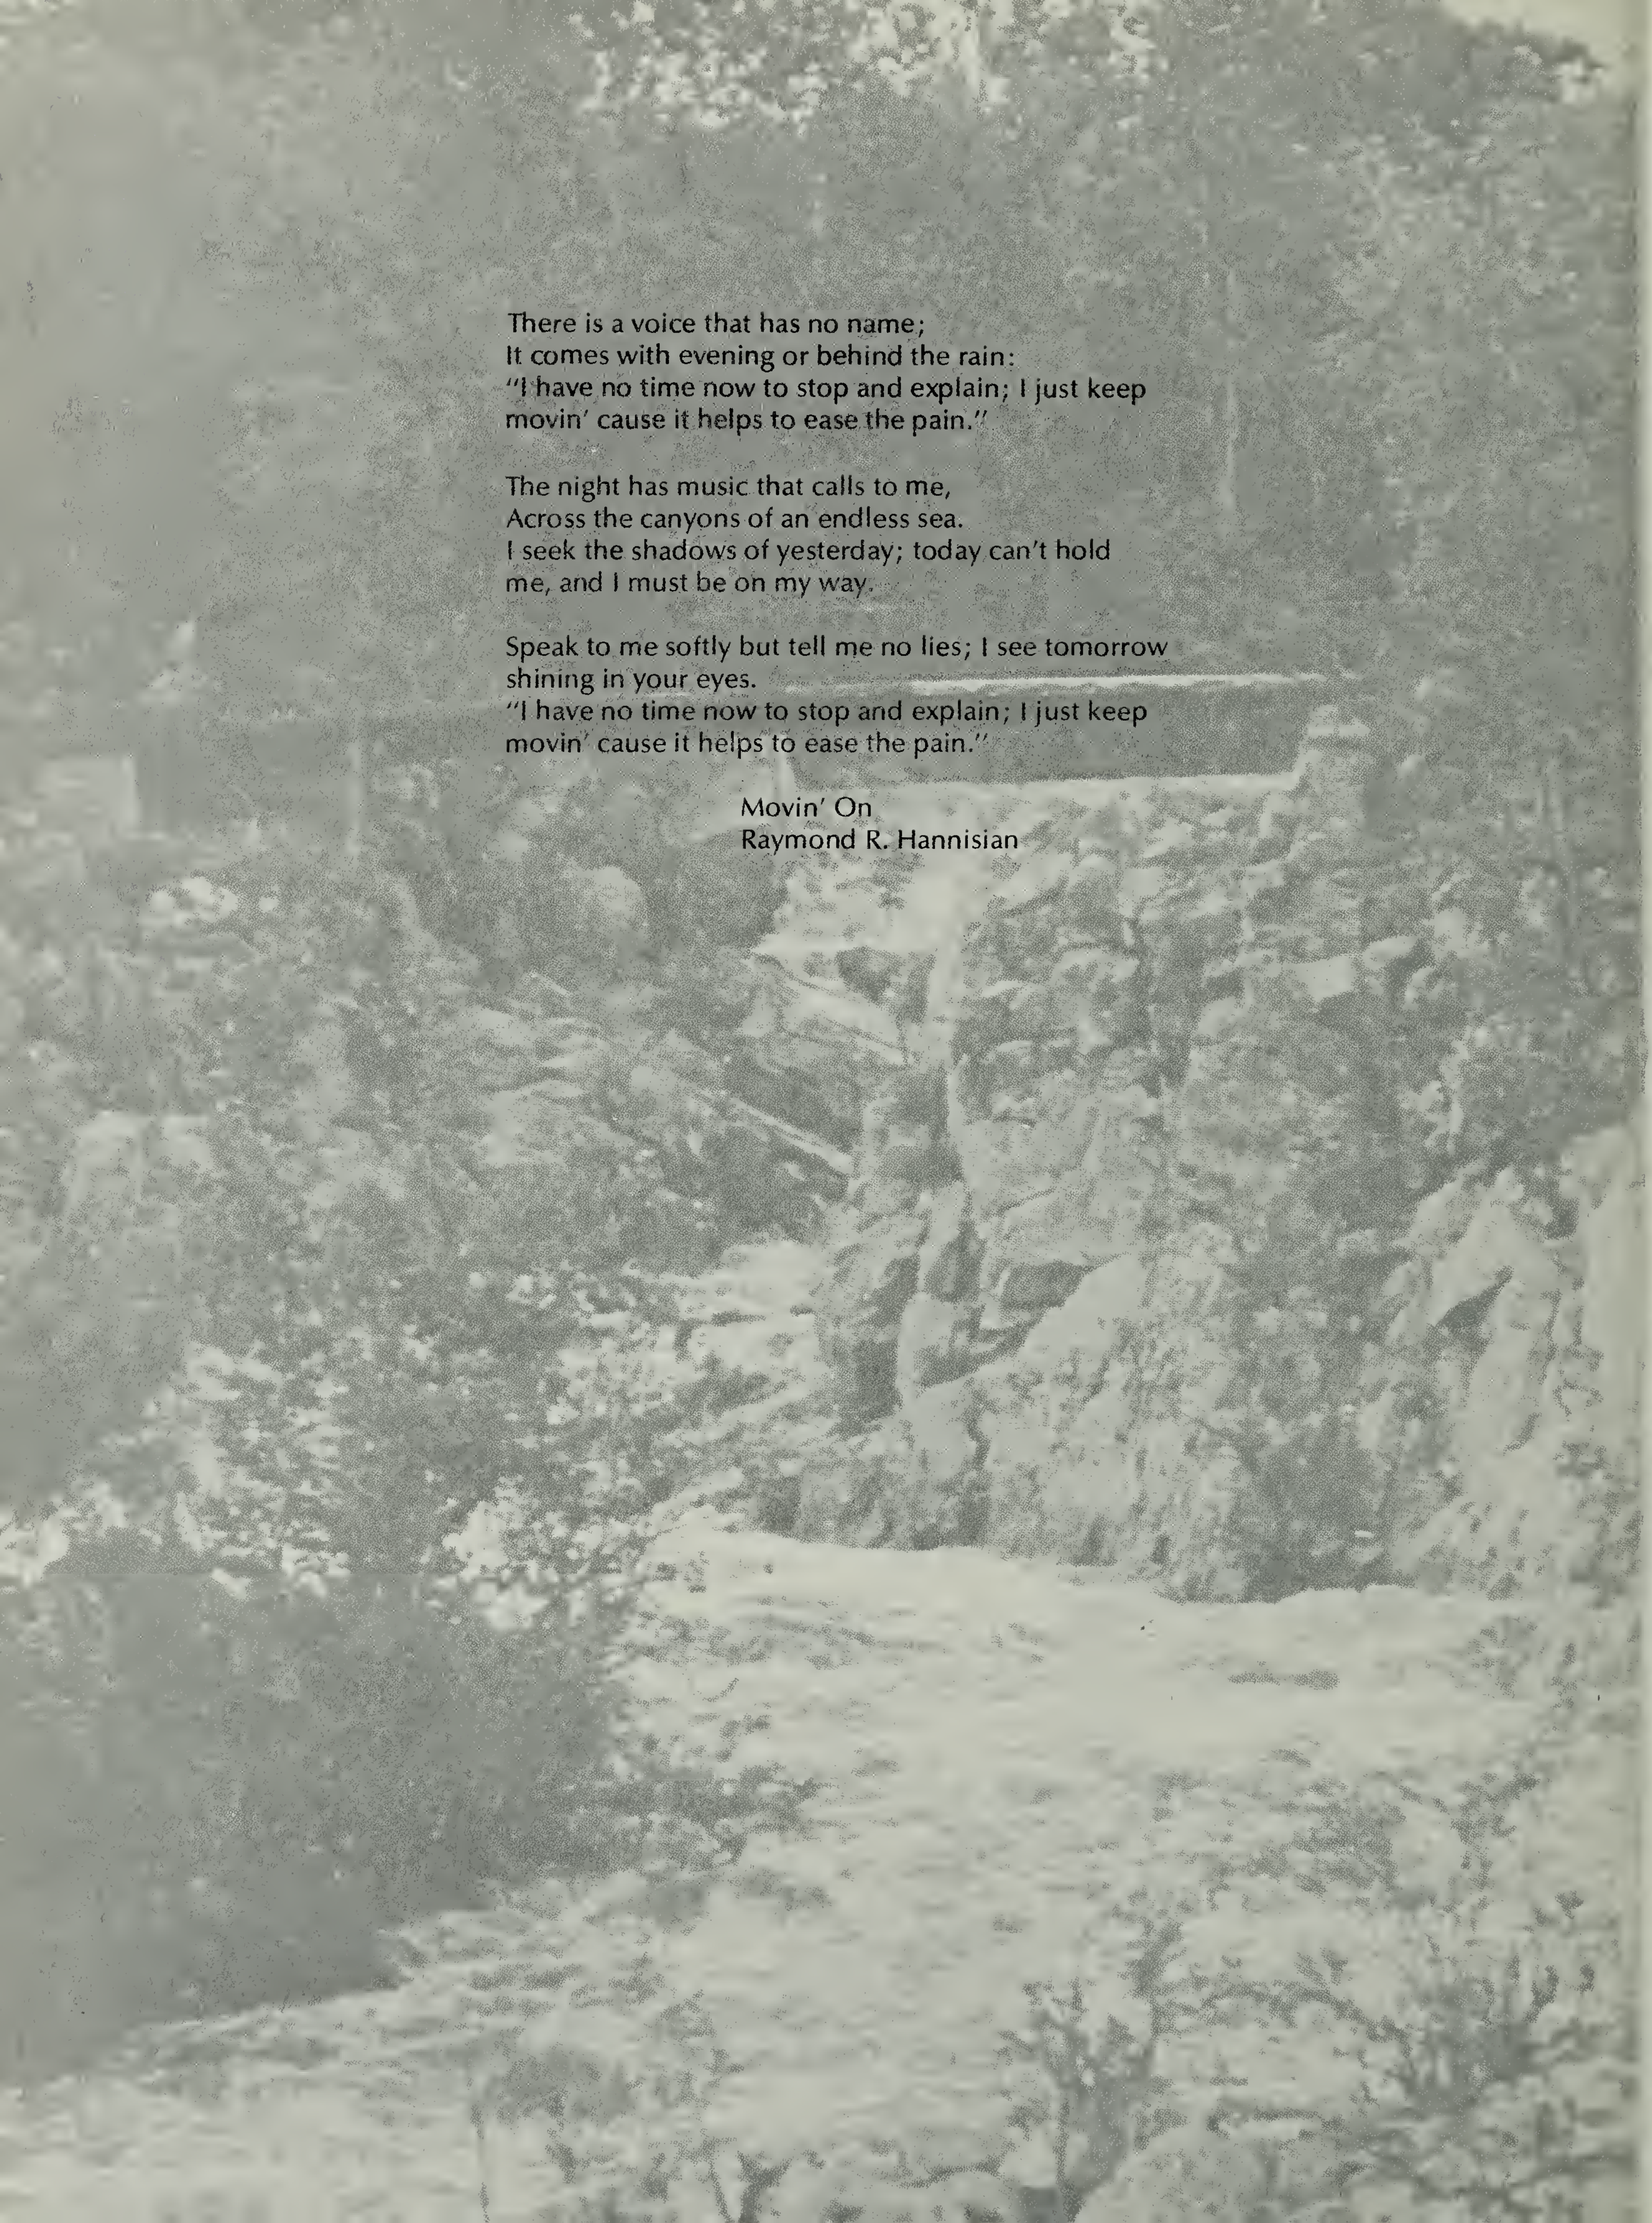
Today's assignment:
Clean up room!

to WTW and Pickett

Oakton Shares with Woodson







There is a voice that has no name;
It comes with evening or behind the rain:
"I have no time now to stop and explain; I just keep movin' cause it helps to ease the pain."

The night has music that calls to me,
Across the canyons of an endless sea.
I seek the shadows of yesterday; today can't hold me, and I must be on my way.

Speak to me softly but tell me no lies; I see tomorrow shining in your eyes.
"I have no time now to stop and explain; I just keep movin' cause it helps to ease the pain."

Movin' On
